

Military and Family Life Counseling (MFLC) Program Services

Due to the unique challenges faced by military families, the Department of Defense offers private and confidential non-medical counseling service to military service members, military families and military family service member's children in Child and Youth Programs (CYP).

The CYB-MFLC may work with military children and their families in the following ways:

- Observe, participate and engage in activities with children and youth.
- Provide direct interaction with military children.
- Model behavioral techniques and provide feedback.
- Suggest courses of age appropriate behavioral interventions to enhance coping and behavioral skills.
- Provide outreach to military parents when they drop off or pick up their children at family events.
- Be available for military parents to contact for guidance and support.
- Facilitate psycho-educational groups.
- Conduct training for staff and parents.
- Recommend referrals to military social services and other resources as needed.

CYB-MFLCs may assist military parents, military children and centers with the following type of issues:

- Communication
- Self-esteem/self-confidence
- Resolving conflicts
- Behavioral management techniques
- Bullying
- Helping children deal with angry feelings
- Sibling/parental relationships
- Deployment and reintegration issues

The counselor may also work with military children in settings such as field trips and other center, camp or school sponsored activities. The counselor is available to accommodate appointments and meetings/activities after hours and on weekends with advance notice. At no time will the counselor meet individually with a child without being in line of sight of a CYP, DoDEA, LEA, or camp employee or a parent/guardian. The counselor may use only the Office of the Secretary of Defense-approved materials for trainings, groups and any other activities.

With the exception of mandatory state, federal, and military reporting requirements (i.e., domestic violence, child abuse, and duty-to-warn situations), as well as oversight review by DoD of the service you received should an adverse or harmful event occur, MFLC support is private and confidential to encourage the widest level of participation.
