Webster University Offers Graduate Degree Programs Relative to Today’s Market

Webster University holds classes on three continents, in seven countries and 58 cities. However, we remain One, Private not for profit, University.

We offer a total of 56 Graduate Degrees, 19 of which can be taken online. Locally we offer five degree programs.

Webster is committed to providing its students the knowledge and skills to advance their careers, accomplish personal goals, and succeed in the global economy. What one learns in class today can be applied at work tomorrow. Interactive classes, coupled with the professional experiences of our student body and faculty members, expose our students to real-world practice. Our learning environment is both supportive and interactive. Our students enjoy small classes and personalized attention; hallmarks of a rewarding and productive educational program.

Local program options are:

- Masters of Arts (MA)
  - Human Resources Management
  - International Relations
  - Management and Leadership
  - Procurement and Acquisitions Management
- Masters Business Administration (MBA)

Webster University recognizes many of its students are working professionals. Therefore classes are conveniently held one night a week, per class, from 5:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m., five terms a year, allowing each student to succeed at their own pace. We recognize course work taken at DAU, EWS, Command and Staff, Naval War College, and Captain Career courses.
